ANNUAL CONFERENCE

RURAL HEALTH ASSOCIATION OF TENNESSEE

ABOUT RURAL HEALTH IN TENNESSEE

Rural Health Association of Tennessee (RHA) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit with the mission of leading the way to a healthy tomorrow throughout rural Tennessee. Our more than 800 members represent rural hospitals, clinics, school health professionals, mental and behavioral health providers, and representatives from county health councils.

Sponsors

The annual conference would not be possible without the support of our long-time sponsors including Tennessee Department of Health, Tennessee Center for Health Workforce Development (TCWD), UTHSC Graduate Medical Education, and many others who are advocates for access to quality care in rural Tennessee.

National Rural Health Day Awards Ceremony

RHA hosts an awards luncheon on National Rural Health Day to recognize rural providers, advocates, and others who make significant contributions to rural health and the association.

*Each year 350+ guests attend RHA's annual conference for networking, professional development, and to celebrate Rural Health Day!
