

CROSS COMMUNITY COLLABORATIVE
SYMPOSIUM ON PREVENTION AND RECOVERY
www.crosscommunitycollab.org

AUG 11th @ 1 PM

Bell Hall, Tennessee Tech University, Room 232

Join Power of Putnam, Tau Tau Upsilon, and the TN Rural Communities Opioid Response Program (TN-RCORP) for a collaborative symposium to discuss new developments and best practices in substance use prevention and recovery.

Gain knowledge on the evolution of prevention and application of prevention efforts within the Upper Cumberland and learn best practices in recovery and the efforts being made within the region. Learn how to identify the importance of a cross collaborative framework to address individual and systems-level concerns in prevention and recovery and how to identify health disparities within the Upper Cumberland.

Don't miss this free training opportunity – continuing education hours are available!
